Notes
Heather agreed to be chair and introduced the meeting. No one wanted an icebreaker! Asma fed back briefly about the party in the park event with the Volunteer Centre in Polesworth David fed back about the recruitment for the Rural Youth Work Project and said that we had successfully recruited for the position subject to their confirmation. More details to follow. The project will create a large number of new volunteering opportunities. Project ideas: It was suggested that we run another cake baking intergenerational project. Possible venue: Arley Community Centre. David to enquire about costs and dates and the possibility of combining it with the next steering group meeting. Project dates for summer holidays: T-shirt Grafitti projects: Held in recreation grounds in the following areas: Thursday 4th August in Hartshill – Keighley, Asma, Tiffany Tues 9th August in Hurley – Sarah, Keighley, Asma, Tiffany Tuesday 16th August in Atherstone - Sarah, Keighley, Asma, Tiffany Dickens night It was decided that we would organise the following projects for dickens night: Tombola, Toffee/chocolate apples, Lucky dip, Christmas hampers. The date for Dickens Night still needs to be confirmed. Mass Volunteering day It was decided that we would leave organising this until the next meeting. We have already come up with some ideas but need to decide exactly which projects we want to deliver. We also need to create teams who will focus on individual aspects of the project. Next meeting: It was suggested that we combine the next meeting with an Ede celebration, possible foods from around the world project.
A.O.B and date of next meeting

Reconditioned bikes - £20 – to include bike lock and Helmet, Tiffany interested in this. David to find out more.
